Section 1: The President may add additional officers with consent of the general body.
Section 2: Mid-year additional officers and appointed officers shall be presented for approval at a General Body meeting and voted upon at the next meeting.
Section 3: A two-thirds majority is needed from the General Body to add an additional officer or an appointed officer.
Section 4: New officers shall take office at the time of the approval of the appointment.

ARTICLE VII - TERMINATION OF OFFICERS

Section 1: An officer who fails to perform the duties of his/her office and/or incurs two unexcused absences from the General Body or Execution Board meetings, may be removed from that office through means of impeachment by the Executive Board and confirmed by two-thirds majority vote of the General Body.

ARTICLE VIII - OFFICER VACANCY

Section 1: If an office should be vacant at the beginning of the fall semester or become vacant at any point during the academic year, the Executive Board must initiate the process of appointing a replacement for any office with the exception of the office of President, which must be voted on by the General Body as per Article VIII, Section 3.
Section 2:
A. To appoint replacements, the Executive Board will make applications available not more than one General Body meeting after the vacancy occurs, and not more than one General Body meeting after the official start of the fall semester should an Executive Board position be vacant at the beginning of the fall semester. The application will be due to the President within one week after being made available.
B. Should the Executive Board fail to meet this time requirement, it shall take it upon itself to fulfill the vacant position until such a point as a resident expresses interest in the position, at which point the Executive Board shall follow the guidelines outlined in Part A, C, and D of this section.
C. At the next Executive Board meeting following the due date, the Executive Board shall review the applications, and give each applicant an equal opportunity to represent themselves. After all applicants have been reviewed, the Executive Board shall appoint a new officer by secret ballot. A simple majority is necessary for the appointment, with the President’s vote only counting in case of a tie.

Section 3:
A. Should the office of President be vacant at the official beginning of the Fall semester, or should become vacant at any point during the academic year before and after the regular elections, the Executive Board shall commence an election process to elect a new president. The Executive Board shall make applications available no more than one general body meeting once the position becomes vacant, and once the fall semester officially begins. Once applications are made available, residents may apply to the position for two academic weeks, after which point, the Executive Board shall verify that all applicants are eligible for the position, and then proceed to hold the election for the position at the next General Body meeting.
B. Each applicant shall be given fair time to represent themselves, and then voting shall commence via secret ballot. Should a tie exist, Executive Board may then vote.

ARTICLE IX - GENERAL BODY

Section 1: The General Body of the ARH shall consist of all duly elected and appointed representatives of the Residence Halls, or their designated substitutes. The General Body shall not consist of Resident Assistants. All members of the General Body shall be granted suffrage, except the President who shall vote in the event of a tie.

Section 2: The number of representatives from each hall shall be allocated as follows: one voting representative from resident halls with fewer than 200 residents, two voting representatives from halls with 201-400 residents, and not more than three voting representatives from each of the residence halls with more than 400 residents based on hall population as of February 1 for the spring elections. Adjustments may be made based on September hall population, but no decrease in representatives will take place in the September adjustment.

Section 3: Overflow representation in the ARH General Body will not be dissolved until the number of students living in overflow drops below that of the smallest residence hall in the ARH General Body.

Section 4: Representatives that make up the ARH General Body may seek an individual to attend in their absence. This substitute shall be known as a proxy. A representative may only seek a proxy for one consecutive meeting.
