No need to leave campus — meal plans are available to nonresidents, too!

K-State Housing and Dining Services has dining options with you in mind.

The Jardine Apartments and Off-Campus Meal Plan offers several dining options in Derby and Kramer dining centers. Both are just a few minutes from either side of campus.

Your signature on this form verifies you have read and understand the following terms.

- This meal plan will begin on May 29, 2018, and end on Aug. 17, 2018. Meals are available during standard hours of operation. Please check housing.k-state.edu/dining for summer hours and locations.
- This meal plan is nontransferable. I must be present and have a valid K-State ID card for all meal plan transactions.
- I can cancel this contract by contacting Housing and Dining Services in 104 Pittman Building. I agree to pay full cash price for each meal used and a $60 cancellation fee.
- I understand any use or conduct deemed inappropriate by Housing and Dining Services and/or K-State may result in termination of this contract without refund.
- Housing and Dining Services does not purchase or prepare foods for special dietary needs with this meal plan. Before purchasing a meal plan, review the menus to ensure that any special needs can be accommodated.
- I understand university parking regulations apply at all Housing and Dining Services locations.
- I agree to the terms and conditions as listed above and understand the financial implications if I cancel this meal plan contract.

Additional information, including dining center hours of operation, is available at housing.k-state.edu/dining.
