DINING CENTERS

Our award-winning dining program offers a wide range of nutritious foods through a choice of meal plans, as well as 11 retail operations to accommodate residents' diverse backgrounds and busy lifestyles.

A particular point of pride for us is our farm-to-fork program which has allowed us to purchase all hamburger patties, steaks, beef roasts, fajita meat and other products (when available) from Weber Hall on campus. All cow's milk comes from the USDA-inspected dairy processing plant at Call Hall. Local, seasonal produce is offered as well whenever possible.

Dining Services initiatives promote wellness, sustainability and community through the food and services provided. We regularly feature local produce, whole grains, diverse beverages, ethnic cuisines and more!

Kansas State University Dining Services promotes a healthy lifestyle and provides nutritional information to students. Dining centers offer a wide selection of foods including low-calorie and nutrient-dense options.

The Nutrition Now program includes pointers on how to make better food decisions and how to improve quality of life, as well as resources to enhance and increase nutrition and well-being.

Registered and licensed dietitians are available at all dining centers to assist on-campus students with nutritional choices and special diets.

MEAL PLAN FINGER SCAN

Residents enter our dining centers using a biometric screening process. This system will scan their finger and match it with their ID Card, then deduct a meal from their meal plan. How it works: A random number sequence, which identifies a finger's pressure points, will be tied to students' IDs. These numbers are only applicable to our system, and no image of an actual fingerprint is stored. Their K-State ID does serve as a meal card and can also be used to gain access.

DERBY DINING CENTER

Derby Dining Center, named after Reference Librarian Grace Derby, serves the students who live in Ford, Haymaker, Moore and West residence halls. Derby Dining Center is under renovation with completion scheduled for spring 2021. Until then, Derby Community residents are encouraged to eat at Van Zile Dining Center across the street.

KRAMER DINING CENTER

Kramer Dining Center, which serves the students who live in Goodnow, Marlatt and Wefald residence halls as well as the Honors House, was named in honor of Home Economics Professor Martha Kramer. A brand new Kramer Dining Center opened in 2016. Designed to encourage a community dining experience, Kramer offers the same nutritious, from-scratch meals we’re known for but in a modern, multi-platform setting.

VAN ZILE DINING CENTER

Van Zile Dining Center serves the students living in the Strong Community: Boyd, Putnam and Van Zile residence halls. Domestic Science Professor Mary Van Zile is the namesake of this historic limestone building located on the east side of campus. The dining center’s food court design and smaller, homelike environment is popular with its residents.

Housing and Dining Services recognizes the importance of being good stewards of the Earth — and residents' dollars. Here are a few highlights of our efforts to promote sustainability in our operations and lessen our impact on finite natural resources.

SUSTAINABILITY

Simple, ongoing upgrades to our apartments, residence halls and dining centers have resulted in a savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars and a substantial reduction in fossil fuel and water consumption.

The building that houses JP's Sports Grill and Cornerstone Café in the Jardine Apartments community received a LEED Gold certification in recognition of its many innovative sustainability features.

Recycling is made easy with the many one-stop drop bins located in each community. Move-in and move-out recycling programs and resources successfully redirect many tons of material away from the landfill.

Dining Services' composting program earned K-State a Food Recovery Challenge Award from the Environmental Protection Agency Region 7.

Dining Services' farm-to-fork initiatives allow it to source its beef and other meat products (when available) from Weber Hall on campus. Cow's milk for drinking and use in our recipes is purchased from the dairy processing plant at Call Hall. Our baked goods are made with flours from wheat milled locally in McPherson, Kan., by Cereal Food Processors. We also purchase local, seasonal produce when possible.

JP's Sports Grill at Jardine Apartments is located in a LEED Gold certified building. It was built using reclaimed materials, and uses energy-efficient appliances.

HOW TO SIGN UP FOR HOUSING RESIDENCE HALLS

THE PROCESS

(Students must be admitted to the university with a verified K-State eID to complete these.)

OPTIONAL

COMPLETE THE HOUSING INFORMATION REQUEST FORM*

This is available in the Resident Portal beginning Sept. 15 and can be completed at any time. No payment is required. The single purpose of the Housing Information Request Form is to notify Housing and Dining Services that you would like to receive more information about the residence hall contract process that will begin in December.

*When the contract becomes available in December, this form will no longer be needed and will not be shown as an option in the Resident Portal.

COMPLETE THE RESIDENCE HALL CONTRACT

The residence hall contract will be available to complete beginning at 3 p.m. Monday, Dec. 7, 2020. Students can then complete the contract and submit the minimum $230 contract payment. This amount consists of a $30 non-refundable processing fee and a refundable $200 initial payment. Contracts will not be processed or considered complete until the initial payment is made. A verified K-State eID and password are required to complete this process. If you have questions or concerns about the contract payment, please contact the Housing and Dining Services office for assistance. The date and time a student completes the residence hall contract will determine their place in line for the room selection process in May.

You can compare costs at a glance with our residence hall cost sheet.
